1. About Teboza

Teboza is a family business focusing 100% on asparagus. The company is established in the town of Helden in the south of the Netherlands. We produce, harvest and pack asparagus plants and fresh asparagus for our customers. During the season we work with a group of about 360 highly motivated and experienced employees who travel to the Netherlands to carry out all the various operations in the period concerned.

If you'd like to do some challenging work in the agricultural sector in the period from February until the end of June, then Teboza is where you need to be!

2. The Work

Doing seasonal work for Teboza means working and living together with colleagues of different nationalities. You will be working in a team outdoors in a field or indoors in a shed.

Outdoor work

Early in the season (January, February and March) the outdoor work involves harvesting asparagus in the greenhouses and preparing the outdoor fields for harvest later in the season. The actual cutting of the asparagus outdoors in the fields takes place in the period from March until the end of June. Later in the season (July and August) the work focuses on tidying up and maintaining the fields, and where possible preparing them for the winter period.

Outdoor work means that you must be prepared to do the work in any kind of weather.

We expect you to be flexible with respect to your working hours and days. The number of working hours per day may vary because of the work being dependent on the weather.

You must of course be physically fit enough to do the work. Bear in mind that most of the outdoor work involves a lot of walking, lifting and bending!

Indoor work

In the first period (March and April) the indoor work involves sorting asparagus plants along a conveyor belt. From mid-April until the end of June it comprises sorting, packing or peeling.

Although this work is relatively easy and not physically demanding you must bear in mind that you will be required to stand all day to do it.

Our aim is to offer you work either indoors or outdoors, but we expect you to be flexible in this respect, too, if necessary.

Training and possible development

When you arrive at Teboza you will be given instructions/a presentation. You will then also be given important information such as work instructions, hygiene rules and the rules & regulations for your accommodation.

In each department you will be working under a boss, who will supervise and help you when necessary on your first day. We expect you to be completely committed to the various operations you will be required to do. Your boss will also be your main contact during the time you spend at Teboza. These can be recognized by the dark blue caps.

Training courses will be provided for employees who need them for a certain job. You will be informed of this in due time.

Please let us know beforehand what your greatest skills and qualities are, and in what you are most interested. We will then do our best to schedule the right kind of work for you.

3. Wages

You will be scheduled to work six out of seven days. Our aim is to try to ensure that you will be able to work on average between 32 and 48 hours a week.

You will be paid for each hour you work and your wages will be paid to you per week.

In addition to your hourly wages, you will also receive a holiday allowance.

We pay in accordance to the Dutch statutory minimum wages. In 2025 this is € 14,06 per hour for all ages.

You can earn a bonus on an individual basis in cutting asparagus.

The costs of any accommodation and health insurance will be deducted from your wage.

You must have an active email address, because we will be sending your pay slip and other important information to that address.

5. Support from P&O

Burger Service Nummer (BSN)/Citizen Service Number

In the Netherlands, everyone must have a Burger Service Nummer (BSN; Citizen Service Number) to be allowed to work. Such a number must be obtained from your local municipal authorities.
